Information on Courses

1. Course Title (English): Graduation Thesis

2. Course Code:
   SM4140

3. Course Aims & Objectives: (within 200 words)
   This course aims to develop a student’s capability in applying knowledge and skills learnt in previous years and other concurrent courses to carry out a substantial project that engages with critical and creative issues in digital media. Building upon research concepts developed in Hybrid Spaces and Dynamic Environments (in Semester A of the final year), students would either finish a creative project or written theoretical thesis, both based on solid and thorough research. The thesis project also aims at developing students’ ability to exercise good planning and management of their research and production process. Communication and presentation skills are necessary part of the exercise.
